Prague, Capital of the Czech Republic

Prague is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Its uniquely preserved historical centre, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1992, reflects eleven centuries of history. This culturally rich city full of fabulous monuments charms visitors not only with its impressive and diverse architecture and breath-taking views, but also its intimate, romantic atmosphere that is ideal for long walks. Prague is a city of (not just classical) music and art, found here at every step, a city of gardens and parks, and last but not least, a city where the best beer in the world is brewed and savored.

What You Need to Know

- The best source of information about Prague is www.prague.eu and Prague City Tourism information centres (see page 42).
- Prague is a city made for sightseeing by foot, but its beautiful historical cobblestones can be challenging for feet. Be sure to wear comfortable walking shoes.
- Does walking tire you out or are you traveling with small children? Use the Ecotrain, take a ride in a vintage car/convertible, take the historical tram or carriage, or take a boat trip on the Vltava River. There are also guided tours of Prague on Segway or bicycle.
- Prague city transport includes trams and the metro, as well as buses in the outskirts. If you plan to get around other than by foot, it pays to buy a travel pass for 1 or 3 days. Note that before your first trip, you must stamp the ticket in the ticket machine, otherwise you risk a fine.
- The Prague Card (2, 3 or 4 days) includes free access to 50 major tourist sites, as well as free use of public transport. You can buy it at any of our tourist information centres.
- It's easy to get by in Prague speaking English or German, but you can't go wrong with a sincere "Dobrý den" [doh-bree den] ("Hello!"). To say "thanks", say "děkuji" [dyeh-koo-yi].
- For more useful information, see page 39.

Prague Highlights

Visitors from around the world are drawn to Prague by its unique symbiosis of carefully preserved monuments of all periods and styles, from Romanesque rotundas, Gothic cathedrals and Baroque churches, Renaissance palaces and gardens, to Art Nouveau, Cubist and purely modern buildings. The skyline is dominated by Prague Castle towering above the Vltava River, which in turn reflects the city's landmarks, towers, church domes, palaces and houses, garden greenery and islands.

Castle District (Hradčany) and Surrounding Areas

Prague Castle (Pražský hrad) – Prague 1, www.hrad.cz

Prague Castle has been an important symbol of the Czech state for more than a thousand years. It was founded in the 9th century and became the seat of Czech rulers and later presidents. The castle, one of the largest complexes in the world, is made up of historical palaces, offices, church and fortification buildings, gardens, and picturesque spots, such as the famous Golden Lane.

With the exception of the towers (Daliborka Tower, White Tower, Powder Tower, and the Great South Tower of the cathedral) and the castle ramparts in the Golden Lane, the visitor and exhibition areas are wheelchair accessible.

Main Historical Buildings of Prague Castle

Cathedral of St. Vitus, St. Wenceslas and St. Adalbert (Katedrála sv. Víta, Václava a Vojtěcha)

This Gothic cathedral, the spiritual symbol of the Czech state, was established in 1344 on the site of the original Romanesque rotunda. The construction took nearly 600 years and was finally completed in 1929. Its impressive interior is home to such wonders as the beautifully decorated St. Wenceslas Chapel with the tomb of St. Wenceslas, the crypt where Czech kings are buried, and the Crown Chamber, where the Crown Jewels are kept.

Old Royal Palace (Starý královský palác)

This palace was the seat of Bohemian princes and kings until the 16th century. It is built on the remains of the Romanesque Soběslav Palace. Most notable is the Gothic Vladislav Hall – the largest secular space of medieval Prague (1487–1500, Benedikt Rejt) with remarkable rib vaulting, today the venue for ceremonial state events.

St. George's Basilica (Bazilika sv. Jiří)

The oldest preserved church building at Prague Castle and the best-preserved example of Romanesque architecture in Bohemia. Built around the year 920 by Prince Vratislav I, rebuilt in the 12th century, it now has a Baroque façade from the 17th century. Of significance is the chapel of St. John of Nepomuk and the chapel of St. Ludmila, grandmother of St. Wenceslas, and the first Czech Christian martyr.

Chapel of the Holy Cross (Kaple sv. Kříže)

Built from 1758 to 1763 by architect Anselmo Lurago, the chapel was rebuilt in the mid-19th century in the Classicist style. It is often also called the Treasury – in the early 1960s, it was turned into an exhibition space displaying the rarest objects of the St. Vitus treasure, which contains 139 reliquaries and liturgical objects of high historic and artistic value.

Golden Lane (Zlatá ulička)

These small houses were built into the castle's Gothic fortifications. Castle marksmen and artisans lived here during the 16th century. Franz Kafka lived and worked in house no. 22 from 1916 to 1917. In 2010, the Golden Lane underwent a comprehensive renovation.

Prague Castle Picture Gallery (Obrazárna Pražského hradu)

Built in the 1960s on the site of the former stables. The collection consists of works from the remains of the “Rudolfian” collections and from later periods (old German and Dutch Renaissance masters, the Italian Renaissance and Mannerism, Baroque art).

Royal Summer Palace of Queen Anne (Letohrádek královny Anny)

The purest example of Renaissance architecture in Prague, dating from 1538 to 1560, designed by Paolo della Stella, completed by the architect Bonifaz Wohlmut. In the garden, you can find the Singing Fountain, made from bell metal struck by falling drops of water, the work of Tomáš Jaroš (1564–1568). Exhibition hall.

Ball Games Room (Míčovna)

Renaissance building decorated with sgraffito located in the Royal Garden. Used for exhibitions and concerts.

Prague Castle Riding School (Jízdárna Pražského hradu)

Baroque building from the late 17th century. The Riding School is a venue for significant exhibitions.

Prague Castle Gardens

See the section “Prague Gardens and Scenic Views”

Changing of the Guard

The changing of the guard at the Castle takes place every hour.

7:00–20:00 (summer) and 7:00–18:00 (winter)

12:00 – with fanfare and exchange of standards in the first castle courtyard

OPENING TIMES

The grounds of Prague Castle are open to the public daily

5:00 to 24:00 (April to October) and 6:00 to 23:00 (November to March)

The sights at Prague Castle are open daily

9:00–17:00 (April to October) and 9:00–16:00 (November to March), closed on December 24.

Cathedral of St. Vitus, St. Wenceslas and St. Adalbert (Katedrála sv. Víta, Václava a Vojtěcha)

Mon–Sat 9:00–17:00, Sun 12:00–17:00 (April to October) and Mon–Sat 9:00–16:00, Sun 12:00–16:00 (November to March)

The Great South Tower of the cathedral is not part of guided tours.

It is accessible in good weather daily 10:00–17:00; 10:00–18:00 in the summer.

Tickets can be purchased at Prague Castle information centres

in the second and third courtyards or at cash desks at some sights.

Route A (Old Royal Palace, “The Story of Prague Castle” exhibition, St. George's Basilica, Rosenberg Palace/Institute of Noblewomen, Golden Lane and the Daliborka Tower, the Mihaluka Powder Tower, Cathedral of St. Vitus, St. Wenceslas and St. Adalbert)

Route B (Old Royal Palace, St. George's Basilica, Golden Lane and the Daliborka Tower, Cathedral of St. Vitus, St. Wenceslas and St. Adalbert)

Route C (Exhibition The Treasure of St. Vitus Cathedral, Prague Castle Picture Gallery)

Entry tickets are valid for 2 days. In the Prague Castle information centre, you can book a tour guide, specialised tours, lectures, and support for people with disabilities. A Braille guide – “Prague Castle for the Blind” – is available upon request.

Lobkowicz Palace (Lobkowiczský palác) – Jiřská 3, Prague 1, www.lobkowicz.cz

The Lobkowicz Palace, the only privately owned building in the Prague Castle complex, houses a museum with the Lobkowicz family art collections. These are the largest and oldest family-owned art collections in the Czech Republic and contain paintings by world-famous painters, as well as music instruments and manuscripts of important composers of the 17th–19th centuries, including Beethoven and Mozart. Classical music concerts are held in the palace's beautiful concert hall; the complex includes a café and gallery shop.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:00

Loreto – Loretánské náměstí 7, Prague 1, www.loreta.cz

A Marian pilgrimage site with a replica of the Holy House and the Baroque Church of the Nativity, surrounded by cloisters and chapels. In the tower there is a 27-bell carillon that plays the Loretan Marian song "A Thousand Times We Greet Thee" (every hour from 9:00 to 18:00). The Loreto Treasury houses a rare collection of liturgical objects from the 16th–18th centuries, the most famous of which is the "Prague Sun", a monstrance encrusted with 6,222 diamonds.

Opening hours: daily 9:00–12:15 and 13:00–17:00 (April to October) and daily 9:30–12:15 and 13:00–16:00 (November to March)

Strahov Monastery (Strahovský klášter) – Strahovské nádvoří 1, Prague 1, www.strahovskyclaster.cz

This Premonstratensian monastery was founded in 1140. The complex includes the Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1743–1752); the unique Strahov Library with a number of rare medieval manuscripts, maps and globes; the Baroque Theological Hall (1671–1679); the Classical Philosophy Hall (1785–1794) decorated with frescoes; and the Strahov Gallery, one of the most important collections of Gothic painting, Rudolfian arts, and Baroque and Rococo painting.

Opening hours: daily 9:00–12:00 and 13:00–17:00 (Library) and daily 9:00–12:00 and 12:30–17:00 (Picture Gallery)

Petřín Lookout Tower (Petřínská rozhledna) – Petřín Park, Prague 1, www.muzeumprahy.cz

The Petřín Lookout Tower, one of the most prominent landmarks of Prague, was built as part of the Jubilee Exhibition in 1891 as a free copy of the Eiffel Tower (at a ratio of 1:5). It is 63.5 metres high and 299 steps lead to its top, which is at the same altitude as the real Eiffel Tower. The view from it overlooks not only the whole city, but on a clear day you can see nearly all of Bohemia.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–22:00 (April to September), daily 10:00–20:00 (March and October) and daily 10:00–18:00 (November to February)

Mirror Maze (Bludiště) – Petřín Park, Prague 1, www.muzeumprahy.cz

This historical curiosity from 1891, resembling an old Gothic gate, hides a seemingly endless labyrinth of intricately interconnected mirrors. At the end of the maze is a unique diorama depicting scenes from the end of the Thirty Years' War when the Swedes conquered Prague. The last room, the "Hall of Laughter", was outfitted in 1911 with convex and concave mirrors that make visitors completely unrecognizable.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–22:00 (April to September), daily 10:00–20:00 (March and October) and daily 10:00–18:00 (November to February)

Lesser Town (Malá Strana)

Charles Bridge (Karlův most) – Malá Strana, Staré Město, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

Prague's oldest bridge was built to replace the Judith Bridge that had been badly damaged by floods in 1342. The Stone, or Prague, Bridge, called Charles Bridge since 1870, was begun in 1357 by Charles IV and was completed in 1402. The bridge is built of sandstone blocks, flanked at each end by fortified towers (Lesser Town Bridge Towers, Old Town Bridge Tower). From 1683 to 1928, thirty statues of saints were carved to decorate the bridge, the most famous of which is the statue of St. John of Nepomuk.

Lesser Town Bridge Towers (Malostranské mostecké věže) – Malá Strana, Prague 1, www.muzeumprahy.cz

The smaller tower is Romanesque, dating from the 12th century; its current Renaissance appearance dates to 1591. The late Gothic taller tower, from 1464, is based on the architecture of Parléř's Old Town Bridge Tower. The central gate was built in the early 15th century.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–22:00 (April to September), daily 10:00–20:00 (March and October) and daily 10:00–18:00 (November to February)

St. Nicholas Church (Kostel sv. Mikuláše) – Malostranské náměstí, Prague 1, www.stnicholas.cz

One of the most important buildings of Baroque Prague with its dominant dome and belfry. The interior decoration of the church is an outstanding example of Baroque architecture. The dome has an impressive diameter of 20 m and an interior height of over 49 m – the highest interior in Prague – and its monumentality is enhanced by the ingenious play of light. During Mozart's stay in Prague, he played the organ here.

Opening hours: daily 9:00–16:00 (November–February) and daily 9:00–17:00 (March to October)

Church of Our Lady Victorious – Infant Jesus of Prague (Kostel Panny Marie Vítězné – Pražské Jezulátko) – Karmelitská 9, Prague 1, www.pragjesu.info

This early Baroque building, dating from 1611 and rebuilt between 1634 and 1669 by the Carmelite order, is famous for its statue of the Infant Jesus of Prague, originally from Spain and donated to the Carmelites by Polyxena of Lobkowitz in 1628. The Infant Jesus has two crowns and 46 outfits, which, according to an old custom, are changed 10 times a year depending on the time of year. A small museum was built to display his clothing and other religious objects.

Opening hours: Mon–Sat 8:30 to 19:00, Sun 8:30 to 20:00

Wallenstein Palace (Valdštejnský palác) – Valdštejnské náměstí 4, Prague 1, www.senat.cz

The vast palace complex, the first monumental early Baroque secular building in Prague, was built between 1624 and 1630 on the site of 26 houses, 6 gardens, 2 brickworks and 1 plot of land for one of the most powerful and wealthiest Czech noblemen of the post-White Mountain period, Albrecht von Wallenstein (1583–1634). Today it houses the Senate of the Czech Republic.

Opening hours: Sat, Sun 10:00–17:00 (April, May, October); Sat, Sun 10:00–18:00 (June to September) and every first weekend of the month 10:00–16:00 (November to March)

Old Town (Staré Město)

Old Town Bridge Tower (Staroměstská mostecká věž) – Staré Město, Prague 1, www.muzeumprahy.cz

The entrance gate to Charles Bridge from the Old Town, the most beautiful Gothic gateway in Europe, was completed before 1380. Its rich sculptural decoration includes the symbols of the Czech Crown Lands at the time of the reign of Charles IV, statues of St. Vitus, Charles IV, Wenceslas IV, St. Adalbert and St. Sigismund.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–22:00 (April to September), daily 10:00–20:00 (March and October) and daily 10:00–18:00 (November to February)

Old Town Square (Staroměstské náměstí) – Staré Město, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

The most significant square of historical Prague. It was founded in the 12th century and has witnessed many historic events. In addition to the Old Town Hall and the Church of Our Lady before Týn, the square is dominated by the Baroque church of St. Nicholas; the Rococo Kinský Palace (now National Gallery offices and exhibition spaces); the House at the Stone Bell (a Gothic palace from the 14th century, today a concert and exhibition space of the City Gallery Prague); and the Jan Hus Memorial by Ladislav Šaloun (1915). In the pavement of the square there are memorial stones marking the execution of 27 Czech lords (June 21, 1621) and the Prague meridian.

Old Town Hall and the Astronomical Clock (Staroměstská radnice s orlojem) – Staroměstské náměstí 1, Prague 1, www.staromestskaradnicepraha.cz

The Town Hall was established in 1338 as the seat of the Old Town administration. The oldest part of the complex, consisting of Gothic towers, a bay chapel and rich symbolic décor, dates from the 2nd half of the 14th century. Every hour between 9:00 and 23:00, twelve apostles appear on the famous 15th century Astronomical Clock; below the clock is a calendar featuring the signs of the zodiac painted by Josef Mánes (1865). The eastern wing of the Town Hall was destroyed on May 8, 1945, and has not been rebuilt. Disabled access is available up to the gallery hall tower; the halls are not wheelchair accessible.

Opening hours: (if the building is not reserved for ceremonial events of the Lord Mayor of Prague) Mon 11:00–18:00, Tue–Sun 9:00–18:00 (halls); and Mon 11:00–22:00, Sat–Sun 9:00–22:00 (tower)

Cathedral of Our Lady before Týn (Chrám Matky Boží před Týnem) – Staroměstské náměstí 604/14, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

The most impressive Gothic religious building in Prague, built from the mid-14th century to the early 16th century. At the end of the 17th century the interior was rebuilt in Baroque style. The cathedral is an extensive gallery of Gothic, Renaissance and early Baroque works, the most interesting of which are, among others, a giant altar by Karel Škréta and the tomb of astronomer Tycho Brahe. The organ, dating from 1673, is the oldest in Prague.

Opening hours: Tue–Sat 10:00–13:00 and 15:00–17:00, Sun 10:30–12:00

St. Nicholas Church (Chrám sv. Mikuláše) – Staroměstské náměstí 27a, Prague 1, www.svmikulas.cz

A monumental Baroque structure, built from 1732 to 1737 according to plans by Dientzenhofer. Its façade, facing Pařížská Street, was updated in modern times. A niche is fitted with a larger than life-sized, pseudo-Baroque sandstone statue of St. Nicholas. The interior, with its interesting light effects, is a Dientzenhofer masterpiece.

A crystal crown chandelier with glass ornaments from the Harrachov glassworks hangs in the nave.

Opening hours: Mon–Sat 10:00–16:00, Sun 11:30 to 16:00 (except during religious services or cultural events)

Týn Yard (Týnský dvůr) – Ungelt – between Týnská, Štupartská and Malá Štupartská streets, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

One of the most important historical sites in Prague. This block of buildings, probably built in the 11th century, was originally a fortified merchant yard, where customs duties – ungelt – were collected, hence the name of the whole area. The most important building here is the Granovský Palace with its arcaded loggia, one of the best preserved Renaissance treasures of Prague, with beautiful sgraffito and murals that depict scenes from the Bible and Greek mythology; of particular note is the painting of the Judgement of Paris.

Powder Tower (Prašná brána) – Na Příkopě, Prague 1, www.muzeumprahy.cz

Completed in 1475, this monumental entrance gate, through which coronation processions of Czech kings entered the Old Town, is one of the most significant monuments of late Gothic architecture in Prague. The Powder Tower, which formerly served as a gunpowder store, is still the starting point for the Coronation, or Royal, Route to Prague Castle.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–22:00 (April to September), daily 10:00–20:00 (March and October) and daily 10:00–18:00 (November to February)

Municipal House (Obecní dům) – náměstí Republiky 5, Prague 1, www.obecnidum.cz

This Art Nouveau building, built from 1905 to 1911, is an example of unprecedented artistic and craft skills and quality. Its rich exterior and interior decorations are the work of Alfons Mucha, Max Švabinský, J. V. Myslbek, and others. The monumental Smetana Hall dominates the stunning interior, which features a plethora of charming lounges and halls; its unique Art Nouveau decorations are ubiquitous – in the café, the French and Pilsener restaurants, and the American bar, the second oldest bar in Europe.

Guided tours several times a day – see www.obecnidum.cz for the current schedule.

House of the Black Madonna (Dům U Černé Matky Boží) – Ovocný trh 19, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

This magnum opus of Czech Cubist architecture was built from 1911 to 1912 by Czech architect Josef Gočár. It is exceptional not only for its façade, but also for its Cubist floor plan and in particular the penetration of Cubism into the interior of the house, where you'll find the only Cubist café in the world.

Café opening times: Mon–Fri 9:00–22:00, Sat–Sun 10:00–22:00
Bethlehem Chapel (Betlémská kaple) – Betlémské náměstí 255/4, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

The chapel was founded in 1391 for Czech sermons, and between 1402 to 1413, when Jan Hus preached here, it gained considerable popularity. In 1661 the Jesuits converted it into a Catholic church and subsequently demolished it in 1786. From 1950 to 1952, a replica of the original building (by architect J. Fragner) was built here. An exhibition entitled “The Bethlehem Chapel in Czech History and the Tradition of Non-Catholic Thought – the Life and Work of Jan Hus” is currently on display.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:30 (April to October) and daily 10:00–17:30 (November to March)

Clementinum (Klementinum) – Mariánské náměstí 5, Prague 1, www.klementinum.com

The extensive grounds of the Clementinum, one of the largest building complexes in Europe, were built as a Jesuit college from the mid-16th to the mid-18th century. Of greatest interest here are the Astronomical Tower, where meteorological measurements have been recorded since 1775; the Mirror Chapel with its richly designed interior and mirrors, which have no equal in the Czech lands; and the Baroque library hall with beautiful frescoes and historically valuable globes.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–17:00 (April to October) and daily 10:00–16:00 (November to March)

Rudolfinum – Alšovo nábřeží 12, Prague 1, www.ceskafilharmonie.cz

This world-famous concert hall is home of the Czech Philharmonic, which performed here for the first time in 1896 under the baton of Antonín Dvořák. The neo-Renaissance building was constructed from 1876 to 1884. The main hall – Dvořák Hall – is the venue for exceptional concerts of classical music, especially the Prague Spring music festival.

Josefov – Prague Jewish Town (Židovské Město) – Prague 1, www.prague.eu

Founded in the 13th century, its present appearance is largely the result of an extensive reconstruction from 1893 to 1913 that managed to save only a few of the most important monuments from the centuries-long history of Prague Jews. Nevertheless, it is the best-preserved complex of Jewish monuments in Europe. With the exception of the Old-New Synagogue, the area is administered by the Jewish Museum.

Old-New Synagogue (Staronová synagoga) – Červená 2, Prague 1, www.synagogue.cz

One of the oldest and most valuable European and world Jewish monuments, and the oldest synagogue in Central Europe. The early Gothic building dates from the end of the 13th century with rich stonework and antique furnishings (wrought iron Gothic grille and chandeliers). Today it is the main synagogue of the Jewish community in Prague.

Opening hours: Sun–Thu 9:00–18:00 (April to October) and Sun–Thu 9:00–17:00 (November to March); closed Saturdays and Jewish holidays. Friday closing time varies with the beginning of the Sabbath.

The Jewish Museum – booking centre – U Starého hřbitova 3a, Prague 1, www.jewishmuseum.cz

Old Jewish Cemetery (Starý židovský hřbitov) – Široká 3, Prague 1

Built in the first half of the 15th century, it served as a burial ground until 1787. Among the 12,000 Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque tombstones are the tombs of Rabbi Judah Loew (1609) and Mordechai Maisel (1601).

Synagogues maintained by the Jewish Museum: Spanish (Španělská, Věžeňská 1), Klausen (Klausová, U Starého hřbitova 3a), Maisel (Maiselova, Maiselova 10), Pinkas (Pinkasova, Široká 3), and the Ceremonial Hall (Obřadní síň, U Starého hřbitova 3a).

Exhibitions in these buildings offer insight into Jewish history and tradition.

Opening times of Jewish Museum properties: daily except Saturdays and Jewish holidays 9:00–16:30 (November to March), and daily except Saturdays and Jewish holidays 9:00–18:00 (April to October)

Jerusalem (Jubilee) Synagogue (Jeruzalémská (Jubilejní) synagoga) – Jeruzalémská 1310/7, Prague 1, www.synagogue.cz

The newest and largest synagogue of the Jewish community in Prague is an interesting example of Art Nouveau melded with Moorish style. Its interior is richly painted in Art Nouveau style, and is unlike any other synagogue in the world.

Opening hours: daily except Saturdays and Jewish holidays
11:00–17:00 (April to October)

New Town (Nové Město)

Wenceslas Square (Václavské náměstí) – Prague 1, www.prague.eu

The commercial and administrative centre of the city and the site of important social and historic events. It was created during the founding of New Town by Charles IV in 1348. Today the square is dominated by the National Museum (1885–1891) and the statue of St. Wenceslas from 1912, the work of J. V. Myslbek.

New Town Hall (Novoměstská radnice) – Karlovo náměstí 23, Prague 2, www.novomestskaradnice.cz

A complex of Gothic buildings from the turn of the 15th century, rebuilt in Renaissance style in the 16th century. It includes a tower with a chapel of the Virgin Mary, two Gothic halls with ribbed vaults, and a Renaissance hall. Seat of the New Town administration from 1377 to 1784. Site of the defenestration of Prague Hussites by Catholic aldermen on July 30, 1419, which started the Hussite Revolution.

Opening hours: Tower: Tue–Sun 10:00–18:00 (April to October) and halls: during exhibitions Tue–Sun 10:00–18:00

Jindřišská Tower (Jindřišská věž) – Jindřišská St., Prague 1, www.jindrisskavez.cz

This tower from the Gothic period (1472–1476) was built as a separate bell tower modelled after an Italian campanile. The tallest freestanding bell tower in Prague, it is 66 m high and has a total of ten floors. In addition to the views of the city from the small corner towers, the tower itself features a café, a restaurant, and the Museum of Prague Towers.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:00

New Stage (Nová scéna) – Národní 4, Prague 1,

www.novascena.cz

The modern theatre building from 1983 is still one of the most talked-about buildings in Prague. Its characteristic form, designed by Stanislav Libenský and constructed from more than 4,000 blown glass blocks, drastically changed the neo-Renaissance appearance of the street. It is part of the National Theatre and the home of the Laterna Magika and other original projects.

Emmaus Monastery – Na Slovanech (Klášteř Na Slovanech – Emauzy) – Vyšehradská 49, Prague 2, www.emauzy.cz

The Abbey Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Jerome and Slavic Saints was founded by Charles IV in 1347 and became a centre of learning, art and Slavic literature. Murals depicting scenes from both parts of the Bible are a rarity in Europe and rank among the rarest relics of the Czech Gothic. During the bombing of Prague in 1945, the church was badly damaged and its roof was later replaced by a modern structure with concrete towers with white and gold spires.

Opening hours: Mon–Sat 11:00–17:00 (May to September), Mon–Fri 11:00–17:00 (April, October) Mon–Fri 11:00–14:00 (November to March)

Outside the Historical Centre

Vyšehrad – V Pevnosti 159/5b, Prague 2, www.praha-vysehrad.cz

According to ancient legends, Vyšehrad is the oldest seat of Bohemian princes, but in fact, the local settlement was established later than Prague Castle – about the mid-10th century. Situated on a rocky promontory above the Vltava River, it offers unique views of the city, and the park area is home to hidden architectural treasures including the rare Romanesque rotunda of St. Martin from the 11th century, the neo-Gothic Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, built on medieval foundations; the national cemetery, where Antonín Dvořák and other notable personalities were laid to rest; and underground casemates housing the originals of some Baroque statues from the Charles Bridge.

The grounds of Vyšehrad are open throughout the day.

Opening times of buildings: daily 9:30–18:00 (April to October) and daily 9:30–17:00 (November to March)

Vyšehrad Cemetery and Slavín: daily 8:00–19:00 (May to September), daily 8:00–18:00 (March, April, October) and daily 8:00–17:00 (November to February)

The Dancing Building (Tančící dům) – Jiráskovo náměstí 6 / Rašínovo nábřeží 80, Prague 2, www.tancici-dum.cz

This pillar of modern architecture in Prague “danced” onto the Rašínovo Embankment in 1996. The project comes from the drawing board of world-renowned architects Vlado Milunić and Frank O. Gehry. Its concept was inspired by the dance skills of the famous film couple – the stone tower symbolizes Fred Astaire and the glass tower, his partner Ginger Rogers.

New Jewish Cemetery (Nový židovský hřbitov) – Izraelská 1, Prague 3, www.synagogue.cz

This cemetery, with countless artistically valuable tombstones, was founded in 1890. Of greatest interest is the 1985 Memorial of Czechoslovak Jews who perished in the Shoah and the Resistance. Another popular sight is the tomb of writer Franz Kafka and his parents (tombstone number 21 – 14 – 21).

Opening hours: Sun–Thu 9:00–17:00, Fri 9:00–14:00 (April to October) and Sun–Thu 9:00–16:00, Fri 9:00–14:00 (November to March), except Saturdays and Jewish holidays.

Church of the Most Sacred Heart of Our Lord (Kostel Nejsvětějšího Srdce Páně) – náměstí Jiřího z Poděbrad, Prague 3, www.srdcepane.cz

The church is the most significant Czech sacral building of the 20th century. This distinctive modern building inspired by old Christian designs is the work of the famous Slovenian architect Josip Plečnik and was built from 1928 to 1932. The original design by Plečnik features a particularly wide, 42 m high bell tower in southern European style, which is topped with a 3 m copper sphere with a 4 m high cross, and a church interior evocative of Noah’s ark.

Opening hours: The church is open about 40 minutes before and after Mass.

Mass: Mon–Sat 8:00, Sun 9:00 and 18:00, 11:00, 18:00

Žižkov Television Tower (Žižkovská televizní věž) – Mahlerovy sady 1, Prague 3, www.towerpark.cz

Unquestionably the main landmark of the Žižkov district – at 216 m in height, it’s the tallest building in the city. With a 360° view, Prague is laid out before your eyes. The tower was designed by architects Václav Aulický and Jiří Kozák during the 1980s. Ten giant sculptures of babies by leading Czech artist David Černý crawl all over the outside of the tower.

Opening hours: daily 8:00–24:00

Břevnov Monastery (Břevnovský klášter) – Markétská 1/28, Prague 6, www.brevnov.cz

The monastery, the oldest in the Czech lands, was founded in 993 by Prince Boleslav II and Bishop Vojtěch. The monastery as it appears today dates from the years 1708–1745 (architect Dientzenhofer) and is a magnum opus of the Baroque. Open for viewing are the magnificent Baroque Basilica of St. Margaret, the 11th century Romanesque crypt, and the Baroque prelatore with its Teresian Hall. Closely connected with the history of Břevnov Monastery is a brewery, mentioned as early as the 13th century, whose production can still be tasted today.

Tours: Sat, Sun 10:00, 14:00, 16:00 (April to October) and Sat, Sun 10:00, 14:00 (November to March)

Müller (Loos) Villa (Müllerova (Loosova) vila) – Nad Hradním vodojemem 14/642, Prague 6, www.muzeumprahy.cz

The Müller family villa in Prague (1928–1930) is a masterpiece of world architectural avant-garde. It is a rare example of agreement between an enlightened client and a genius architect. Outwardly, the building appears strictly functionalist; of primary interest is its internal layout, the so-called Raumplan, in which the rooms “flow” from one to the next.

Tours on request: Tue, Thu, Sat, Sun at 9:00, 11:00, 13:00, 15:00 and 17:00 (April to October) and Tue, Thu, Sat, Sun 10:00, 12:00, 14:00 and 16:00 (November to March)

Mainpoint Karlín – Pobřeží 21, Prague 8, www.mainpointkarlin.cz

Voted the Best Office Building in the World in 2011 by the prestigious real estate MIPIM Awards competition – truly a summation of this unique building “with personality”. From the outset, the architects DaM placed an emphasis on environmentally friendly construction – one resourceful idea is a cooling system using water from a Vltava River flush canal under the building.

Admission to Prague’s historical monuments, museums and galleries generally ranges from about 70 to 150 CZK; some private museums are more expensive. The highest admission fees are charged by the largest and most important conservation areas (Prague Castle and the Jewish Museum (350 CZK, 300 CZK)), but the tickets are valid for 2 days and provide access to a large number of buildings and sights, making them a good value overall.

Prague Gardens and Scenic Views

Right in the centre of busy Prague, you can find peaceful oases of greenery – beautifully cultivated, architecturally interesting gardens that not only offer beautiful views of the city, but also quiet places to relax and unwind. The Botanical Gardens and the zoo are also popular places for walks in unique natural settings.

Prague Castle Gardens (Zahrady Pražského hradu) – Prague Castle, Prague 1, www.hrad.cz

The Royal Gardens are historically the most valuable of all the castle gardens. Founded in 1534 by Ferdinand I Habsburg, they were inspired by Italian designs; the gardens' current appearance is the result of their adaptation in the English style in the 19th century. One of the most beautiful fountains in Renaissance Europe, the Singing Fountain, can be found here. The southern gardens (Rajská, Na Valech and Hartigovská) spreading along the southern façade of Prague Castle offer striking views of the Lesser Town, Old Town and nearby Petřín.

Free admission

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:00 (April, October), daily 10:00–19:00 (May–September), daily 10:00–21:00 (June, July) and daily 10:00–20:00 (August)

Palatial Gardens below Prague Castle (Palácové zahrady pod Pražským hradem) – Valdštejnská 12–14, Prague 1, www.palacove-zahrady.cz

This complex of interconnected historical gardens (Ledeburská, Malá and Velká Pálffyovská, Kolovratská and Malá Fürstenberská) is situated on the southern slopes below Prague Castle. You can admire balustraded terraces adorned with sculptures, secret staircases and passages, numerous fountains, and impressive Baroque flowerbeds.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:00 (April, October), daily 10:00–19:00 (May–September), daily 10:00–21:00 (June, July) and daily 10:00–20:00 (August)

Wallenstein Garden (Valdštejnská zahrada) – Letenská St., Prague 1, www.senat.cz

This strictly geometrically designed early Baroque garden was created in parallel with the construction of the Wallenstein Palace from 1623 to 1629. Upon entering, your gaze will immediately be drawn to the colossal sala terrena, which at the time of its construction was unmatched, and an artificial cave with stalactites. During the summer, the garden is the venue for concerts and theatrical performances.

Free admission

Opening hours: Mon–Fri 7:30 to 18:00, Sat, Sun 10:00–18:00 (April to October) to 19:00 (June to September)

Oooh pure emotion
Prague

Franciscan Garden (Františkánská zahrada) – between Jungmannovo náměstí and Václavské náměstí, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

This unique natural oasis in the city centre is furnished with a number of benches, spanned by arches laden with roses in the summer. Lawn areas are separated by low yew hedges, and the garden is completed with several interesting sculptures, fountains, a gazebo, a playground, fruit trees and herb beds, which harken back to the former owners, the Carmelites and the Franciscans, who once grew herbs and spices here.

Free admission

Opening hours: daily 7:00–22:00 (mid April–mid September), 7:00–20:00 (mid September–mid October), daily 8:00–19:00 (mid October–mid April)

Vrtba Garden (Vrtbová zahrada) – Karmelitská 25, Prague 1, www.vrtbovska.cz

One of the most important and most beautiful Baroque gardens thanks to a clever solution by František Maximilián Kaňka around 1720. It's one of the city's smaller gardens, but its unique architectural design on an irregular slope as well as the artistic and historical value of its decoration ranks it high in importance in Europe.

Opening hours: daily 10:00–18:00 (April–October)

Petřín Gardens (Petřínské sady) – Malá Strana, Prague 1, www.prague.eu

Petřín Hill is one of the largest urban green areas and its slopes are an oasis of calm in the centre of Prague. The Rose Garden, or rosarium, at the top of Petřín Hill, the Kinský Garden and the Seminary Garden with more than 2,100 fruit trees are particularly magical. The Carpathian wooden Church of the Archangel Michael is a local architectural rarity.

City Views

Prague towers and other points of interest offer unforgettable views of the city: Smetanovo Embankment – Novotného lávka • Old Town Hall Tower • Powder Tower • Clementinum Tower • Old Town Bridge Tower • Prague Castle ramp at Hradčanské Square • Petřín Lookout Tower • Letná Parks • Belfry of St. Nicholas Church • Žižkov TV Tower • Vyšehrad • South Gardens of Prague Castle

Zoo and Botanical Gardens

Prague Zoo (Zoologická zahrada hl. m. Prahy) – U Trojského zámku 120/3, Prague 7, www.zoopraha.cz

Thanks to its unique position, Prague Zoo is considered one of the most beautiful in the world. The rugged terrain offers over 10 km of walking trails through such exotic exhibitions as the Africa House, the Indonesian Jungle, and the Valley of the Elephants. This beautiful piece of nature is a popular destination for families with children.

Opening hours: daily 9:00–17:00 (March), daily 9:00–18:00 (April, May, September, October), daily 9:00–19:00 (June to August) and daily 9:00–16:00 (November to February)

City of Prague Botanical Gardens (Botanická zahrada hl. m. Prahy) – Nádvoří 134, Prague 7, www.botanicka.cz

The garden is laid out over almost 30 hectares, with exhibition areas including the historical St. Claire's Vineyard, a Japanese meditation garden and the unique Fata Morgana tropical greenhouse. The 130 m long greenhouse, divided into three separate areas with different temperatures and humidity levels, offers a trip through tropical nature at any time of the year.

Opening hours:

Outdoor exhibitions and St. Claire's Vineyard: daily 9:00–16:00 (November to February) daily 9:00–17:00 (March and October), daily 9:00–18:00 (April) and daily 9:00–19:00 (May to September)

Fata Morgana greenhouse: Tue–Sun 9:00–18:00 (April), Tue–Sun 9:00–19:00 (May to September), Tue–Sun 9:00–17:00 (March and October) and Tue–Sun 9:00–16:00 (November to February)

Botanical Gardens of Charles University (Botanická zahrada Univerzity Karlovy) – Na Slupi 16, Prague 2, www.bz-uk.cz

The garden opened in 1898 and gradually expanded to include an arboretum, greenhouses, ponds and a large alpine garden. These areas, along with other outdoor exhibitions, form a cosy green area in the centre of Prague providing a breath of yesteryear.

Opening hours:

Exteriors: daily 10:00–17:00 (February–March), daily 10:00–19:30 (April to August), daily 10:00–18:00 (September, October) and daily 10:00–16:00 (November–January)

Greenhouses: daily 10:00–16:00 (February–March), daily 10:00–17:00 (April to October) and daily 10:00–15:30 (November–January)

Culture in Prague

The inspirational contemporary atmosphere of Prague has undoubtedly imprinted itself onto its cultural life. You can enjoy world-famous as well as completely new artwork in a multitude of galleries, rare museum exhibits, ear-pleasing operatic arias and the spontaneous mood of jazz evenings ... or simply dance the night away in one of Prague's clubs.

We have concocted a blend of cultural tips that will reliably satisfy even the most refined artistic expectations. Take a look ...

Galleries

National Gallery (Národní galerie) – www.ngprague.cz

The second oldest gallery in Europe after the Louvre – a sanctuary for lovers of Czech and international fine art.

PERMANENT EXHIBITIONS

Sternberg Palace (Šternberský palác) – Hradčanské náměstí 15, Prague 1

This significant Baroque monument will especially delight fans of European art from antiquity to the late Baroque. You can admire, among other things, ancient classical art, as well as major works by Italian, Flemish, Dutch, German and Austrian painters.

Schwarzenberg Palace (Schwarzenberský palác) – Hradčanské náměstí 2, Prague 1

This prominent feature of Hradčanské Square is also one of the most beautiful buildings in Prague. The current exhibition displays the best of Baroque art in Bohemia (works by Braun, Brokoff, von Aachen, Škréta, and more).

Salm Palace (Salmovský palác) – Hradčanské náměstí 2, Prague 1

This three-winged palace was built between 1800 and 1811 as a Neo-classical building with distinct Empire influences. The upcoming exhibition "The 19th-Century Art from neo-Classicism to Romanticism" will present important paintings and sculptures from the first two-thirds of the 19th century. Its opening is planned for October 16, 2014.

Convent of St. Agnes of Bohemia (Klášter sv. Anežky České) – U Milosrdných 17, Prague 1

This former convent of the Poor Clares and the Franciscans is considered to be the first Gothic building in the Czech lands. Inside, you can visit the permanent exhibition dedicated to medieval art in Bohemia and Central Europe. Exhibited items are among the treasures of the Czech national cultural heritage.

Kinský Palace (Palác Kinských) – Staroměstské náměstí 12, Prague 1

Rare artefacts of Egyptian, Mesopotamian, Greek, Roman and Asian art await you in the heart of Prague.

Life in the City

Prague is a city full of greenery and unexpectedly charming places made for taking walks, sitting in the shade of mature trees or taking a refreshing cruise on the Vltava River, from which the city unfolds in a different, but no less fascinating form. You can also spend pleasant hours looking for treasures and trying local specialities at flea or farmers' markets. Nor is it possible to visit Prague and miss out on the luxury stores, shopping centres and quirky shops featuring original Czech designs, which are gaining popularity not only in our own country but also around the world.

Natural Areas and Parks

Kampa – Prague 1 – Malá Strana, www.prague.eu

This island, sandwiched between the Vltava River and one of its branches (Čertovka), is one of the most romantic and picturesque places in the city. Not surprisingly, the prestigious travel server Virtual-Tourist declared it the second most beautiful urban island in the world.

Slovanský Island (Slovanský ostrov) – Žofín – Prague 1 – Nové Město, www.prague.eu

The only fully landscaped island on the Vltava River is dominated by a spectacular neo-Renaissance palace – a traditional venue for balls and concerts. There are several places to rent rowboats and pedal boats, a toy train for children, and a playground.

Střelecký Island (Střelecký ostrov) – Prague 1 – Staré Město, www.prague.eu

A romantic place hidden in the shade of mature trees in the heart of the city under the Legií Bridge. It enchants visitors with its old-time atmosphere and exceptional views of the city from river level.

Havlíčkovy Parks (Havlíčkovy sady) (Grébovka Park) – Prague 2 – Vinohrady, www.prague.eu

This park, inspired by the Italian Renaissance, has fountains and water cascades, lakes, pavilions, statues and a charming grotto, as well as a unique view of the city. The charming Viniční altán, surrounded by large vineyards, and the Grébovka Pavilion garden café offer pleasant places to sit.

Riegrový Parks (Riegrový sady) – Prague 2 – Vinohrady, www.prague.eu

This park, over a century old, shelters intimate nooks and places with trees, open grassy areas, unusual vistas of the city and a large garden restaurant with comfortable seating in the shade of old chestnut trees.

Royal Game Reserve (Královská obora) – Stromovka – Prague 7 – Bubeneč, www.prague.eu

A large green oasis in the middle of town with mature trees, water and grassy areas – a perfect place for picnics, walks and relaxation for all ages.

Letná Parks (Letenské sady) – Letná – Prague 7 – Holešovice,*www.prague.eu

This extensive park with grassy areas, mature trees, colourful bushes planted on the hillsides, and a long plane tree-lined avenue provides not only a pleasant place to sit and relax, but also unparalleled views of the city, especially from the Hanavský Pavilion.

Ladronka – Tomanova 1/1028, Prague 6, www.ladronka.com

This large grassy park is a popular place for people of all ages. It's criss-crossed with bike trails and the longest illuminated in-line skating track in Prague.

Žluté lázně – Podolské nábřeží 3/1184, Prague 4, www.zlutelazne.cz

Natural area on the banks of the Vltava River, covering an area of three and a half hectares – with multifunctional sports, entertainment and relaxation facilities.
